

Bunge Limited Addresses NGFA Annual Convention

03/19/18

WHITE PLAINS, N.Y., March 19, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- Bunge Limited (NYSE: BG) announced that its CEO, Soren Schroder, addressed the National Grain and Feed Association's (NGFA's) 122nd Annual Convention today in Scottsdale, Arizona. In a keynote presentation, Schroder discussed Bunge's strategy, industry trends, global trade and current market conditions – making the following points:

- Bunge has been helping to feed the world for the past 200 years by connecting people, markets, countries and cultures
- Our global integrated agri-food footprint with market leading positions in major crop production origins and key destinations allows us to serve our customers regardless of market situation, due to its balance and flexibility
- Bunge's strategy is focused on Grains & Oilseeds, and prioritizes optimizing our Agribusiness footprint, improving operating efficiency and growing our value added business
- The Loders Croklaan acquisition is a transformational step in our value-added strategy
- Long-term trade fundamentals of Grains and Oilseeds are intact and expected to remain robust
- Market changes are underway again: global grain stocks are becoming more balanced and the global soy crush market environment has changed dramatically, with crush margins expanding significantly from 2017 levels
- Free trade is important to maintaining balance and feeding the world's growing population
